Plan of Teacher Engagement in school Internship

The Teacher plays a crucial role in connecting individuals educators and schools for internship. Acting as a liaison the teacher bridges the gap between the educational institution and the cooperating school system. While the intern is primarily accountable to the mentor teacher, the college Instructor offers guidance and support to enhance the internship experience. The detailed duties are as below:-

- At first meet with the intern and mentor teacher to discuss the pupil teacher teaching experience.
- Integrating the intern into the school community by involving them in faculty and PTA meetings and ensuring they have access to messages and school announcements.
- Clearly roles and responsibilities with the Mentor Teacher.
- Support the member in advising or guiding the intern.
- Periodically visit the intern during their internship to assess their internship to assess their practice teaching.
- Visits should be sufficient be sufficiently long to examine various documents :-
 - (a) Review lesson plans and units and other written materials.
 - (b) Observe at least one complete lesson plan in one day or other activities.
